

Wines & Spirits Training Course

Equipping students with recent development of wines and spirits tourism when the Hong Kong Wine and Dine Festival 2018 is coming, the Programme Management Team, Associate of Social Science in Leisure and Tourism Management, Division of Social Sciences, organized a 2-hours wines & spirits training professional trainer from Hong Kong Cocktail School on 12 October 2018 for 24 students studying tourism studies stream.

Participants had learned the latest wines & spirits trends and standards. They had acquired wines & spirits tasting skills in a professional manner by assessing the quality of 3 types of wines and spirits: White, Red and Sparkling wine respectively. Cocktail demonstration by interactive and creative wine games with Aroma Kits was provided. As a whole, participants found this training workshop interesting, rewarding and fruitful.

